Dear Ray,

I am writing to formally thank you for participating as a presenter at the AFL's 2008 National Coaching Conference conducted on the Gold Coast from 1-3 February.

The conference was very successful, attracting over 400 participants whose feedback has been overwhelmingly positive.

As always the professional quality of your presentation contributed to the success of the conference. We have conducted a formal review of the conference including feedback from delegates which we are currently analysing. Feedback relevant to your session is available. If you wish to receive feedback please contact me.

Thank you once again for generously giving your time, expertise and enthusiasm in delivering your presentation at the conference. I hope that you enjoyed the conference and I look forward to your future involvement in AFL Game Development projects.

Ray, I hope that 2008 is a very successful and fulfilling year for you personally and professionally.

Kind regards,
